Medical Consignment Transport Assistance

OSE is a Newcastle upon Tyne based, internationally renowned transport service provider.

We appreciate that medical consignments require specialist transport assistance and the utmost care.

Visit our medical transport services page here.

With over 10 years experience serving a range of industries including the medical and pharmaceutical industries, we can be relied upon for all transport requirements.

Specifically for medical and pharmaceutical consignments, we provide refrigerated, ADR and hazardous vehicles that are satellite tracked, offering you the peace of mind that you can follow the exact location of your goods at any given time.
