

OSE European

Special Assistance Services March 2011

OSE European is one of the UK's leading providers in worldwide transport solutions.

If your consignment is of a delicate nature and requires special consideration then OSE European can help.

We are highly experienced in dealing with ADR and Special Assistance and with our dedicated OSE fleet and an extensive network of European Partners to provide global transport solutions.

We've also just opened a new depot in Belgium so we are even closer for your European consignments.

For immediate quotation or any queries please call us on 0191 2654455 or sales@oseeuro.com
